

APPRENTICE REGIONAL TRAVEL SUPPORT

ABBTF Regional Travel Support is available to all apprentice bricklayers currently in training who have to travel more than 100 klms to attend a TAFE/RTO to undertake their trade training.

The support will allow an apprentice to claim $25 per day for each day they attend their TAFE/RTO.

Conditions of the scheme include:

1. The apprentice must be registered under a current contract of training and be attending Certificate III (Bricklaying & Blocklaying).
2. They must travel more than 100 klms from their place of residence to the TAFE/RTO for training.
3. Claims must be made within three months of the end of the period to June or December.
4. Claims must be signed off by the appropriate bricklayer teacher at the TAFE/RTO.
5. Each apprentice's claim is limited to $1,000 per annum and claimed every 6 months for the period ending June and December each year.
6. Apprentice must register with ABBTF to be eligible.
7. The support program may be withdrawn at any time at the discretion of ABBTF.
8. Other conditions apply.
